26 No Dogs or Irish Allowed

Thursday, January 26 » Sutton Lounge, Decary Hall, University Campus, Biddeford

The struggle against discrimination is something that many groups of Americans have experienced at one time or another in our nation's history. In the spirit of Martin Luther King, who wrote in his Letter from a Birmingham Jail "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." Join us for a discussion of the Irish American experience, when signs such as "Help Wanted, Irish Need Not Apply" were not uncommonly hung at places of employment and the rules of boarding houses included "No Dogs or Irish Allowed." A panel comprised of members of the UNE community and a representative from the Maine Irish Heritage Center will illustrate the struggle for civil rights for people of Irish heritage thru excerpts from a documentary film, through family stories, and through group discussion.

17-29 A Day in the Life of St. Francis College, January 1964

January 17-29, Ongoing » Campus Center, University Campus, Biddeford

What was the popular music of the day? What was going on in the world? How much did a milk, bread, or a new car cost? What was campus life like? The Campus Center proudly presents a snapshot of the day Martin Luther King, Jr. visited St. Francis College. Go back in time and experience a day in January 1964.

16-31 Days of Service

January 16-31

These Days of Service mark the beginning of another season of work for the common good in our community. By volunteering to serve, we honor Dr. King's legacy of service to others, joining with citizens from all walks of life, backgrounds and beliefs to meet our community's most basic needs. Often, a single day of service can grow into an ongoing habit of service to one's community.

We will again be sponsoring the UNE Martin Luther King, Jr. Read In at local after-school program locations. This year Volunteers of America Northern New England has provided UNE with Scholastic books to give to each child read to in these after-school programs. Contact jmeserve@une.edu for this and other service opportunities available during our Days of Service.

2 African Drumming & Dance with Kwabena Owusu & Crew

3 The Untold Story of Emmett Louis Till

Friday, February 3, 8 p.m. » CHP Lecture Hall, Westbrook College Campus, Portland

In 1955, 14-year-old Emmett Till was taken from his uncle's house in Mississippi, beaten beyond recognition, tortured, murdered and thrown into the Tallahatchie River, all for supposedly whistling at a white woman. His attackers were acquitted in under an hour by an all-white jury. His mother insisted on an open casket at his funeral to show the brutality of his attack which produced so much outrage that this is considered the touchstone event in the American Civil Rights Movement.

Due to the efforts of the directors of this film, this case has been reopened with new testimony and information that, of the people involved, five are still alive and still subject to persecution.

23 Black History Game Show

Thursday, February 23, 7 p.m. » Ludcke Auditorium, Westbrook College Campus, Portland

A computer high-tech game shows system much like the format of "Jeopardy" and "Who Wants to be a Millionaire." Only UNE students may compete, but public is invited to observe.

All events are free and open to the public
